There is also a wheelchair accessible room, toilet and shower. Don't forget to bring your own towel. A flashlight might come in handy. If sleeping with other people in a room is difficult for you please book your own accommodation.

Meals, the kitchen provides steamed meals (with nothing added) especially for participants who can't eat the regular and vegetarian meals provided. If none of the food options are suitable or sufficient for you, you have to arrange your own food. There is a microwave which can be used. The kitchen is during the workshop out of bounds for participants unless specifically invited in.

On Friday night we will celebrate our 30th Anniversary and the start of the Chinese New Year with a banquet. Since we have the banquet on the first workshop day on Friday, we are very happy with early arrivals to help preparing.
